- ALLEGATION #2: The complainant additionally alleges that, on the cited date, time and location, three uniformed police officers removed $525.00 from the console of his car and failed to inventory or return it.

ADDITIONAL ACCUSED:

ACCUSED #3: Clarence BRADLEY, Police Officer, Star #16662, Unit 272/284, EMP# [REDACTED], SS# [REDACTED], D.O.APPT: 18OCT76, D.O.B. [REDACTED] 48, M/B, I.A.D. Physical Condition Code 01.

EVIDENCE:

- ATTACHMENT #1: Complaint Against Department Member Sheet.
- #2: Report of Telephone Contact with the Complainant, [REDACTED]
- #3: Report of Identification of the Accused and Related Documents.
- #4: Report of the Accused, P.O. Darren A. WASHINGTON, #14476, in Response to the Allegations and Related Documents.

- #6: Report of the Accused, P.O. Clarence BRADLEY, #16662, in Response to the Allegations and Related Documents.

INVESTIGATION:

This investigator, on 3 May 95, contacted the complainant, [REDACTED] regarding his allegations. [REDACTED] stated that earlier in the day he was driving in the vicinity of 99TH and Halsted when he was stopped by a marked squadcar containing three uniformed male black police officers. The complainant stated that he was accompanied by his cousin, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] did not have [REDACTED] home address or telephone number available.

C.R. #217436

INVESTIGATION: (Continued)

██████████ stated that he was caused to exit his car, as was ██████████, and searched. ██████████ stated that one officer was speaking to him, one to his cousin, and another searched the car. ██████████ stated that his and his cousin's backs were to the car when it was being searched.

██████████ stated that ██████████ was able to get the star number, #14476, of the officer that was talking to him.

██████████ reported that after a short time the officers allowed them to leave and that no traffic citations were issued.

██████████ claims that after he and the officers left the area he checked his car's console where he had kept $1500.00 in cash. ██████████ explained that he had the cash to get parts to repair a friend's, known only to him as ██████████ car. ██████████ stated that, when counting the money, he discovered that $525.00 was missing.

This investigator asked ██████████ if he was available to come to the office of the undersigned so that he could provide a statement, view photographs in an attempt to identify the accused, and have his car and driver's license, which he states the officers touched, fingerprinted. ██████████ agreed, stating he would be right over, and was given the address and telephone number. This conversation occurred at approximately 1345 hours that day.

This investigator, at approximately 1600 hours, recontacted the complainant. The complainant offered no excuse for not arriving and stated that he lost the address and telephone number. This investigator scheduled another appointment with the complainant, by agreement, for the following day. ██████████ failed to keep that appointment and never contacted this investigator.

The subject star number, #14476, belongs to P.O. Darren WASHINGTON, Unit 284. This investigator discovered that P.O. WASHINGTON, on 3 May 95, was assigned Beat 7492 with P.O. Scott FREEMAN, #12879. P.O. Clarence BRADLEY, #16662, on 3 May 95, was originally assigned Beat 7494 with P.O. MINGO, #3542, however P.O. MINGO was in court, Beat 7494 was downed and P.O. BRADLEY was teamed with P.O.s WASHINGTON and FREEMAN, on Beat 7492, at the time of the alleged incident.

Beat 7492 was assigned in the area the complainant alleges he was stopped.

This investigator therefore named P.O.s WASHINGTON, FREEMAN and BRADLEY as accused.

The accused officers, in their reports responding to the allegations, acknowledge stopping the complainant, however, deny searching the complainant's vehicle or removing any money from him or the his auto.
